Shannon Vineyards and Wines launched

Monday, September 29, 2008 by Shannon Vineyards

Brothers James and Stuart Downes are proud to announce the launch of Shannon Vineyards & Wines.

At Shannon Vineyards, our focus on viticulture principles reflects our commitment to winemaking as an expression of terroir. Our grapes come from exceptional mountain hillside vineyards along the Palmiet River in the Elgin Valley. These unique vineyard sites, combined with a winemaking philosophy of minimal intervention, produce wines with distinctive personalities. Each wine has a sense of place.

The Elgin Valley has long been regarded as the apple and pear centre of South Africa, and now has South Africa's most highly regarded winemakers establishing vineyards in the area, testament to its obvious winemaking potential. James and Stuart are passionate about maximizing the potential of the Elgin Valley, and South Africa, through the wines of Shannon Vineyards.

Shannon Vineyards has steadily gained the reputation of producing potentially the best Sauvignon Blanc and Pinot Noir in the country, through supplying top winemakers with fruit sourced from their vineyards.

Please visit www.shannonwines.com for further information on our wines.
